A few petitioned cases which came to Duamenefa Foundation to help resolve. Some are still under deep undercover investigation or have been by request of the authorities turned over to the police. Some victims unfortunately passed on, and some are totally free through our intervention. We praise God for the successes and this work which brings much hope and change from the darkness to the light of Jesus Christ.

Intervention Yields Positive Results

During the arbitration to reverse the curse, interrogations are made with the alleged culprits all before a large crowd of onlookers

The Duamenefa Foundation upon the receipt of the petition launched its independent investigations into the allegations and discovered that Mr. Afedovi Ahiable was indeed entangled in strange drunken escapades; hence the need for the Foundation to summon the relevant stakeholders, including the Ghana Police Force, the National Commission for Civic Education and the traditional authorities into the matter. A mammoth crowd of over 3,000 people gathered at Glidzi to witness this arbitration. The procedures could not be completed so, the Foundation again collaborated with the traditional authorities to intervene through traditional arbitration and mediation. The traditional authorities under the leadership of Togbi

Akpalu Agbali postponed the arbitrations to enable the families to resort to spiritual consultations according to their individual beliefs, hence prayers for interventions through the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ was employed to rescue Afedovi from his predicament. When Mr. Ketaman on 14th August, 2019, called Mr. Ruben Ahiable, the victim's brother, during his Duamenefa programme to find out the condition of Afedovi Ahiable after the prayers. He informed Mr. Ketaman that Afedovi had completely recovered from his excessive consumption of alcohol.
